Re: Provider Re-Approval

Dear [CONTACT INDIVIDUAL],

The Bureau of Quality Improvement Services (BQIS) within the Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) facilitates the re-approval process for DDRS-approved waiver providers. During the ninety (90) day window prior to the expiration of the current approval period, providers of supported living services or supports are required to renew their status as an approved provider as outlined in 460 IAC 6-6-5. At this time, your organization is due for re-approval.

The re-approval process has been designed to facilitate discussion and review performance-based data. The following attachments are included with this letter:

Attachment A DDRS Service List - Currently Approved

Attachment B Re-Approval Completion Guide

 $\begin{array}{ll} \mbox{Attachment C} & \mbox{Summary of Provider Review Profile (PRP)} \\ \mbox{Attachment D} & \mbox{Provider Review Profile (PRP)} - \mbox{Full Report} \end{array}$

Attachment E Excel Spreadsheet of Incident Reports for Specified Timeframe

Attachment F Re-Approval Assessment Attachment G Submission Checklist

A list of currently approved DDRS services (Attachment A) is included for review and the updating of information that might be inaccurate. The Submission Checklist (Attachment G) contains complete instructions on updating and returning the DDRS Service List.

During the re-approval process, providers are asked to articulate the systems (e.g. policies, procedures, protocol, etc.) that exist, as required by 460 IAC Article 6, and how their policies, procedures, and protocols were implemented in a consistent manner, ensuring the health, safety, and welfare of the individuals they serve. Additionally, the providers will explain their specific processes for identifying problems when they occur and the procedures utilized in addressing those problems. The Re-Approval Completion Guide (Attachment B) contains information that will assist your organization in completing and submitting the required information for re-approval.

The Provider Review Profile (PRP) (Attachment D) is a detailed data-driven report specific to your organization consisting of information from complaints and incident reports. For first time re-approvals, this also includes data from the compliance evaluation review tool (CERT). The PRP is structured to provide a comparison in multiple risk areas. A summary of this information is provided in Attachment C. The PRP allows the provider to assess their organization's data against a benchmark of relatively similar providers (e.g. client count, Algo levels). The analysis of this data is pivotal in reviewing your organization's performance. An Excel Spreadsheet (Attachment E) containing all incident reports included in the PRP is attached to support your organization in the analysis of its data.

Following review of the PRP, the Re-Approval Assessment (Attachment F) must be completed by the provider. Providers are asked a series of questions, by category, to assess how performance is monitored and how service level improvements are made based on the data. Additional questions are focused on the broader subject of providing quality care and services, including how the organization will implement changes and what corrections are necessary to achieve the desired results.

As part of the re-approval process, providers offering services that require national accreditation are required to submit the most current accreditation documentation. Indiana Code (IC 12-11-1.1-1(d) (j)) requires the following DDRS waiver program services to be nationally accredited:

- Day Services (including Adult Day Services)
- Community Habilitation
- Facility Habilitation

- Pre-vocational
- Residential Habilitation
- Extended Services

On or before [DATE 30 CALENDAR DAYS AFTER THIS LETTER] please submit all documents listed on the Submission Checklist (Attachment G) to BQIS at BQISReporting@fssa.in.gov.

Once submitted, BQIS will review the completed Re-Approval Assessment and will contact you on or before [DATE 50 BUSINESS DAYS AFTER THE PROVIDER'S DUE DATE (=workdays(ProvDueDate,20)]. Providers may be asked to meet in person or via telephone for the purpose of BQIS explaining any clarifying questions that require further explanation/detail by the provider. The provider through the submission of a re-approval addendum will submit the clarifying information. BQIS will then make a recommendation to Provider Services to re-approve [PROVIDER'S NAME] for 6, 12, or 36 months. Provider Services will notify your organization of its re-approval period.

Additional information regarding provider re-approval is available on the Provider Services webpage (www.in.gov/fssa/ddrs/2644.htm). Thank you for your cooperation in this process. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Shelly Thomas

PROVIDER RE-APPROVAL COMPLETION GUIDE

PROVIDER RE-APPROVAL

The provider re-approval process is designed to validate that a provider maintains policies, procedures and systems that ensure the needs of consumers are met according to Individualized Support Plans, Behavioral Support Plans and Risk Plans. Providers must substantiate that their systems (i.e., policies, procedures, protocols, staff training, etc.), are designed to address quality improvement and all processes are aligned to offer programs with health, safety and welfare at their core. The Bureau of Quality Improvement Services (BQIS) will utilize Provider Review Profile data, the completed Re-Approval Assessment, and any requested addenda to justify a recommendation of a re-approval term of 6, 12, or 36 months.

DOCUMENTS

To perform a thorough fact based review, a provider-specific report has been developed and is titled the Provider Review Profile (PRP) (Attachment D). Once the provider has reviewed and analyzed its PRP, the provider then completes the Re-Approval Assessment (Attachment F) document.

PROVIDER REVIEW PROFILE (PRP) - ATTACHMENT D

The PRP is a data-driven report that allows the provider to assess its organization's data against a benchmark of relatively similar providers (e.g. client count, Algo levels). Analyzing this data is pivotal in reviewing the provider's performance. The PRP is structured to provide data in multiple risk areas.

The first page of the PRP is a worksheet which contains the raw data for the provider. The next section contains risk area data which includes complaints, general incident data, incident processing data, data for abuse, neglect and exploitation, behavioral data, and medical data. The final section of the PRP is a technical guide that includes the calculations for each of the risk areas. For each of the risk areas, the provider should analyze the raw data to determine one or more reasons for being out of the expected range (above or below). Attachment E in the reapproval documents is an Excel spreadsheet of all incident reports for the timeframe in the PRP. This data should be an essential tool in conducting the data analysis.

RE-APPROVAL ASSESSMENT - ATTACHMENT F

The Re-Approval Assessment is designed to detail the data analysis conducted, convey organizational processes, demonstrate compliance, and identify areas of improvement. There are six sections. The first four sections are linked to the risk areas in the PRP: complaints and incident data; incident processing and ANE data; behavioral data; and medication and medical data.

For each risk area identified as above or below the expected range, the provider will explain the reason for being out of expected range. Data that falls below the expected range or above the expected range may be indicative of issues within your organization's operational systems. Data that is above or below that of your peer group is not where an organization's data should fall and requires a full analysis of the data to explain the results. A review of the data with a quantitative analysis may provide the information to assist in determining the root cause. The results of this analysis are documented on the Re-Approval Assessment. For the re-approval process, providers should consider how their respective PRP data is reflective of quantitative and qualitative data; quantitative numbers are indicative of measureable facts, but the qualitative data is suggestive of what methods your organization uses, and whether or not they are working to deliver outcomes, your organization expects.

Tips: When documenting the reasons for the variation from the norm (being above or below the expected range), consider issues such as individual-specific data that may be affecting your rates (e.g., repeat incidents attributed to a few consumers). Detail if there is evidence to suggest data is trending in the right direction (i.e., showing improvement).

Rev03152016

Once the data has been analyzed, the provider is asked a series of questions to assess how performance in these categories is monitored and how service level improvements are made based on the data. The remaining two sections of the Re-Approval Assessment are focused on the broader subject of providing quality care and services.

DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

The completed Re-Approval Assessment is due on or before the due date noted on the cover page and must be submitted electronically to BQIS at BQISReporting@fssa in gov. When submitting this document, the provider may also attach to the email (as separate documents and labeled as exhibits) copies of supporting documents that will aid in the review of the provider's systems and processes; however, these do not take the place of responding to the Re-approval Assessment questions. All supporting documents must be referenced as exhibits within the Re-Approval Assessment. Once submitted, BQIS will review the completed Re-Approval Assessment. Providers may be asked to meet in person or via telephone for the purpose of BQIS explaining any clarifying questions that require further explanation/detail by the provider. The provider through the submission of a re-approval addendum will submit the clarifying information. Note: Failure to submit a written Re-Approval Assessment by the established due date will eliminate the opportunity for provider clarification. Additionally, it may result in the provider receiving a re-approval term that is not preferred and/or a referral to the DDRS Sanctions Committee.

Summary of Provider Review Profile (PRP) Data

The table below indicates [PROVIDER NAME]'s data as measured against a benchmark of relatively similar providers (e.g. client count, Algo levels) in each risk category.

- Data in the Expected Range column indicates your organization operates comparably to its peers in the risk categories listed. Data reflected in these risk areas may be indicative that your organization's operational systems are operating as designed.
- Data in the Below the Expected Range or Above the Expected Range columns indicates your organization does not operate comparably to its peers in the risk categories listed. Data reflected in these risk areas may be indicative of issues within your organization's operational systems.

	PURPOSE	- Alternor

The Provider Review Profile (PRP) is a data driven report specific to your organization that is structured to provide a comparison in multiple risk areas. The PRP allows a provider to assess the organization's data, as measured against a benchmark of relatively similar providers. This comparison was made possible through the aggregation and analysis of Statewide data from Residential Habilitation Providers supporting people through the Community Integration & Habilitation Waiver. Through incorporation of both Provider Census (RHS and SFC clients) as well as scores associated with the Client complexity levels (e.g., Algo, Behavioral Factor, Health Factor Scores), these comparisons are made possible. Finally, in order to compare across important performance variables with different scales (e.g., percentages, varying ranges, etc.), data was converted to T-Scores to stabilize the rates and facilitate direct comparison. Data that falls below the expected range or above the expected range (whether above or below that of your peers) may be indicative of issues within your organization's operational systems. Data that is above or below that of your peers or you is not where an organization's data should fall and requires a full analysis of the data to explain the results. A review of the data with a quantitative analysis may provide the information to assist in determining the root cause.

PROVIDER RE-APPROVAL

The provider re-approval process is designed to validate that a provider maintains policies, procedures and systems that ensure the needs of consumers are met according to Individualized Support Plans, Behavioral Support Plans and Risk Plans. Providers must substantiate that their systems (i.e., policies, procedures, protocols, staff training, etc.), are designed to address quality improvement and all processes are aligned to offer programs with health, safety and welfare at their core. The Bureau of Quality Improvement Services (BQIS) will utilize Provider Review Profile data, the completed Re-Approval Assessment, and any requested addenda to justify a recommendation of a re-approval term of 6, 12, or 36 months.

DOCUMENTS

To perform a thorough fact based review, a provider-specific report has been developed and is titled the Provider Review Profile (PRP) (Attachment D). Once the provider has reviewed and analyzed its PRP, the provider then completes the Re-Approval Assessment (Attachment F) document.

PROVIDER REVIEW PROFILE (PRP) - ATTACHMENT D

The PRP is a data-driven report that allows the provider to assess its organization's data against a benchmark of relatively similar providers (e.g. client count, Algo levels). Analyzing this data is pivotal in reviewing the provider's performance. The PRP is structured to provide data in multiple risk areas.

The first page of the PRP is a worksheet which contains the raw data for the provider. The next section contains risk area data which includes complaints, general incident data, incident processing data, data for abuse, neglect and exploitation, behavioral data, and medical data. The final section of the PRP is a technical guide that includes the calculations for each of the risk areas. For each of the risk areas, the provider should analyze the raw data to determine one or more reasons for being out of the expected range (above or below). Attachment E in the reapproval documents is an Excel spreadsheet of all incident reports for the timeframe in the PRP. This data should be an essential tool in conducting the data analysis.

RE-APPROVAL ASSESSMENT – ATTACHMENT F

The Re-Approval Assessment is designed to detail the data analysis conducted, convey organizational processes, demonstrate compliance, and identify areas of improvement. There are six sections. The first four sections are linked to the risk areas in the PRP: complaints and incident data; incident processing and ANE data; behavioral data; and medication and medical data.

For each risk area identified as above or below the expected range, the provider will explain the reason for being out of expected range. Data that falls below the expected range or above the expected range may be indicative of issues within your organization's operational systems. Data that is above or below that of your peer group is not where an organization's data should fall and requires a full analysis of the data to explain the results. A review of the data with a quantitative analysis may provide the information to assist in determining the root cause. The results of this analysis are documented on the Re-Approval Assessment. For the re-approval process, providers should consider how their respective PRP data is reflective of quantitative and qualitative data: quantitative numbers are indicative of measureable facts, but the qualitative data is suggestive of what methods your organization uses, and whether or not they are working to deliver outcomes, your organization expects.

Tips: When documenting the reasons for the variation from the norm (being above or below the expected range), consider issues such as individual-specific data that may be affecting your rates (e.g., repeat incidents attributed to a few consumers). Detail if there is evidence to suggest data is trending in the right direction (i.e., showing improvement).

Attachment F Page 2 of 8

Once the data has been analyzed, the provider is asked a series of questions to assess how performance in these categories is monitored and how service level improvements are made based on the data. The remaining two sections of the Re-Approval Assessment are focused on the broader subject of providing quality care and services.

DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

The completed Re-Approval Assessment is due on or before the due date noted on the cover page and must be submitted electronically to BQIS at BQISReporting@fssa.in.gov. When submitting this document, the provider may also attach to the email (as separate documents and labeled as exhibits) copies of supporting documents that will aid in the review of the provider's systems and processes; however, these do not take the place of responding to the Re-approval Assessment questions. All supporting documents must be referenced as exhibits within the Re-Approval Assessment. Once submitted, BQIS will review the completed Re-Approval Assessment. Providers may be asked to meet in person or via telephone for the purpose of BQIS explaining any clarifying questions that require further explanation/detail by the provider. The provider through the submission of a re-approval addendum will submit the clarifying information. Note: Failure to submit a written Re-Approval Assessment by the established due date will eliminate the opportunity for provider clarification. Additionally, it may result in the provider receiving a re-approval term that is not preferred and/or a referral to the DDRS Sanctions Committee.

Re: YEAR Provider Re-approval Term

Dear CONTACT.

The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) recognizes NAME OF ORGANIZATION's efforts in improving its Quality Assurance/Quality Improvement systems as explained in its assessment of data identified in its Provider Review Profile (PRP) for the time period of DATE RANGE.

As described in DDRS' policy and process on provider re-approvals, providers must demonstrate an identification of system deficiencies where they exist in risk categories for which the provider rated above or below the expected range. It is expected that providers analyze their data and identify processes and improvements necessary to ensure its staff, policies/procedures, and overall quality systems render safe and effective services in accordance with Individualized Support Plans, Behavioral Support Plans, other service plans, and ensure the health, safety, and welfare of their consumers. Through this process, and the submission of a Re-Approval Assessment and subsequent Addendum (when appropriate), a provider is recommended for a re-approval term of six (6), twelve (12), or thirty-six (36) months.

The decision to grant NAME OF ORGANIZATION a [6 or12]-month term was based on the provider's overall efforts to address its PRP's identified risk areas through its Re-Approval Assessment (DATE) and Addendum (DATE). A [6 or 12]-month re-approval term indicates the need for your organization to enhance the processes currently in place to ensure the health, welfare and safety of its consumers.

To support the designation of this [6 or 12]-month re-approval term, BQIS has identified the following items:

DATA ANALYSIS:

SECTION I: PRP Complaints and Incidents Data

SECTION II: PRP Incident Processing and ANE Data

SECTION III: PRP Behavioral Data

SECTION IV: PRP Medication and Medical Data

SECTION V: Service Delivery & Consumer Supports

SECTION VI: Improvement Plan

Approval to continue providing waiver services is contingent upon DDRS receiving your agency's:

 Signed Provider Agreement (attached to this letter) within 30 calendar days of receipt of this letter.

On or before 30 DAYS BEYOND THIS LETTER DATE, please submit a signed Provider Agreement to BOISReporting@fssa.in.gov. Failure to submit the signed Provider Agreement by this date may result in the re-approval term being reduced. If DDRS has not received a signed Provider Agreement within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter, DDRS reserves the right to begin the termination process with your agency.

If you have questions regarding your organization's re-approval determination please contact Shelly Thomas at BQISReporting@FSSA.IN.gov.

If your organization will suffer an adverse affect [sic] due to the re-approval determination, an Administrative Review, as held by an Administrative Law Judge (per 460 IAC 6-6-5(g)), may be requested. Per 460 IAC 6-7-6(a), a provider may file a written petition for review. The submitted petition must include a copy of the re-approval letter and an explanation of fact demonstrating the provider is aggrieved or adversely affected by the action.

To exercise this option, a written petition must be submitted to Kylee Hope, Director of DDRS (Kylee Hope, Director, Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services; 402 W. Washington Street; Indianapolis, IN 46207). If a hearing request is not filed within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter, the re-approval term is final.

Sincerely,

Anne Davis Director Provider Services

Re: Moratorium on New Admissions for Waiver Services - Effective {DATE}

Dear [CONTACT INDIVIDUAL],

At the conclusion of the re-approval process, [PROVIDER NAME] was granted a probationary re-approval period by Provider Services. This re-approval term applies to services offered through the Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services' (DDRS) Medicaid Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) waiver programs.

During this six-moth re-approval period, it is recommended that [PROVIDER NAME] focus on system (policy, procedure and protocol) improvements as addressed in the letter dated [RE-APPROVAL LETER DATE]. Given your organization's probationary re-approval status, the Bureau of Developmental Disabilities Services (BDDS) is issuing a ninety (90) day suspension of new consumers (authority granted under IC 12 11 1.1 11 (c) (3)). This suspension applies to any new consumer requesting services through DDRS' Medicaid HCBS waiver programs. This suspension will be in effect starting [START DATE] and will end on [END DATE].

A provider may request an administrative hearing regarding this action (IC 12-11-1.1-11(b)). To pursue this option, a written petition must be submitted to the Director of DDRS:

Kylee Hope, Director Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services 402 West Washington Street, Room W453 Indianapolis, IN 46207

> www.IN.gov/fssa Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

If a hearing request is not filed within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter, the 90 day moratorium regarding new admissions is final.

Should you have any questions, please contact Shelly Thomas at (317) 234-2764 or Shelly.Thomas@fssa.in.gov.

Sincerely,

Cathy Robinson Director, Bureau of Developmental Disabilities Services

cc: Anne Davis, Director, Bureau of Quality Improvement Services Shelly Thomas, Assistant Director, Bureau of Quality Improvement Services

How to best communicate your findings

Data Analysis - Example Response: "Of the 43 medication errors documented in the last year, 32 were attributed to three specific consumers. 25 of the medication errors took place when the individual was with family or other provider and not receiving services from our staff. Of the 8 remaining medication errors, it was determined that staff error was the cause and in each instance staff was retrained according to company policy before the staff member was allowed to pass medication again."

Training - How does your organization ensure continued competency? (New hire, annual, between annual training, based on error rate, etc.)

Management - How is management oversight used to ensure compliance? (Forms, meetings, site visits, frequency, etc.)

Helpful Tips on Submission of Documents and Process Flow:

- Providers submit the Accreditation Documentation, DDRS Service List, and Re-approval Assessment as properly labeled, separate documents attached to one email. The email is sent to BQISReporting@fssa.in.gov.
- If the provider wishes to attach supporting information (training schedules, forms used in the organization, etc.), attachments may be added to the email as separate documents. Please clearly label each document as an Exhibit and reference with the Exhibit letter within the Re-approval Assessment.
- BQIS will review the documentation and contact the provider to schedule a telephone call or a meeting. The purpose of the meeting is for BQIS to explain any clarifying questions that require further explanation/detail by the provider.

Helpful Tips on Submission of Documents and Process Flow (cont.):

Should BQIS request additional written information, please use the Re-approval Assessment document originally submitted and insert the requested information in the appropriate location in the corresponding category. Please insert the word 'ADDENDUM' prior to the additional wording. It is best to not delete the original wording and simply insert the requested information.

When in doubt....ask for guidance.
